Dear

As your second summer assignment at FBIS comes to an end, I wish to thank you for your continued good work at JPRS. Your cheerful personality, excellent phone manners, and diligence in carrying out an assortment of tasks once again earned the appreciation of the sections where you worked, the USSR Section in particular.

I hope that this was a rewarding summer for you. Your colleagues enjoyed working with you and were grateful for all your help. We wish you success as you enter your final year at the University of Virginia.

Sincerely,

Deputy Director
